

Native binning — every row of both experiments, nothing re-binned, nothing cut

FOM for both; the crimson edge marks SBS. SoLID: adaptive bins filling the plane. SBS: 13 ( $x, Q^2$ ) cells, each streak one cell spread by its ( $z, p_T$ )